

Georgia United Credit Union Welcomes Carolina King as Senior Vice President of Organizational Development

Duluth, GA (August 17, 2020) – Georgia United Credit Union is pleased to announce the appointment of Carolina King as senior vice president of organizational development.

“Carolina will contribute as a global leader in the organization to develop and implement strategies for our team members’ professional development to increase our overall organizational performance,” stated President and CEO, Debbie Smith. “We are thrilled Carolina is joining the Georgia United family and know she will be a phenomenal addition to our team.”

King’s career history spans over several industries and functions including financial services, sales, manufacturing, technology and human capital services. King has provided expert organizational and leadership development for top global companies including CNN, AT&T and Siemens Energy & Automation, Inc. along with mid-sized, board-run private equity firms. With a broad and extensive background in human resources, Carolina has experience in several areas including establishing HR strategy development and execution, succession planning, organizational development, change management and performance improvement.

About Georgia United Credit Union

Georgia United Credit Union is an award-winning financial leader and partner in education. Headquartered in Duluth, Georgia United is ranked as one of the state’s largest credit unions with $1.5 billion in assets, 168,000 members and 19 branch locations. As a full-service financial institution, they offer competitive products and services for every stage of life. Visit gucu.org to learn more and follow the credit union on Facebook , Twitter and Instagram.

###