Georgia United Ranked First by Forbes as Best-In-State Credit Union

DULUTH, GA (June 26, 2019) – Georgia United Credit Union has been named by Forbes as the number one Best-In-State Credit Union in Georgia.

Forbes, in partnership with market research firm Statista, surveyed more than 25,000 consumers for their opinions on their current and former banking relationships. Credit unions were scored on overall recommendations and satisfaction, as well as five subdimensions including trust, terms and conditions, branch services, digital services and financial advice.

“It’s an honor to be named as the best credit union in Georgia,” said Georgia United’s President and CEO, Debbie Smith. “Not only are we proud to be recognized by Forbes but we are grateful for our loyal members who made this award possible. We strive to exceed our members expectations and feel this recognition is a direct reflection of their satisfaction.”
